

1. The instructor asked me what was I doing.
2. Have you had a good time on holiday last summer?
3. I didn't found the film very interesting.
4. I've been here since half an hour but no-one's come.
5. Ann: How long are you playing rugby, Bob? Bob: For ages - I started when I was 7.
6. We're running out bread - will you get some or shall I?
7. You'll see the pharmacy on the right as soon as you'll turn the corner.
8. Ann: It might have been Tom. Bob: That's true - I hadn't thought of that.
9. Ann: Haven't you to work today? Bob: No, I'm staying at home. I've got the day off.
10. Ann: Does your brother never wash up? Bob: No, he's really spoilt.
11. Ann: Would you like to join us? Bob: I'd like very much.
12. We decided not to go because it was become too expensive by the time we made up our minds.
13. Ann: Where's my pen? Bob: I've seen it a couple of minutes ago in the kitchen.
14. The Olympic games are hold every four years.
15. He told us he would have come when I spoke to him yesterday.
16. Where was your parents born?
17. It's so warm we've been lyeing on the beach for the last hour - come and join us.
18. Ann: How long does your sister have her car? Bob: She got it last month.
19. You had to tell him as soon as it happened - I don't know why you didn't.
20. He must be delighted he won - he didn't expect it, did he?
21. He should try to do it by hisself if we wants to learn.
22. We invited over 30 people but hardly nobody came.
23. I'm not used to drive in a city because I've never lived in one.
24. She became much more famous than her brother.
25. I always go on public transport unless there isn't a strike.
26. We're going with my car because it's more reliable.
27. I do think it's dangerous, but please yourself.
28. We'd like to go but it depends of the weather.
29. The sky's very dark - it will rain soon.
30. They've been in Scotland several times.
31. You aren't going, aren't you?
32. I really hope to can come with you tomorrow - I need a break.
33. My 34-years-old sister is working in Berlin at the moment.
34. My parents didn't want that I went abroad to study.
35. Ann: Where are you? Bob: I've almost arrived - I've just got off the bus.
36. If I'd have known you were coming, I'd have invited my sister.
37. It's getting dark - shall you switch on the light, please?
38. Since it rained, we were more dirty at the end of the match this time than last time.
39. I'm going to celebrate with all my family when I'll graduate.
40. This place remembers me the town I was born in.
41. My parents were married for 2 years when I was born.
42. If you can't help me, I ask my sister - she should be free.
43. I don't like detective stories as much as science-fiction stories.
44. It must be one of the worse films I've seen this year.
45. I don't think I've ever heard a so ridiculous thing!
46. If he's not in the office, just let the report on his table.
47. I'm not sure, but he might have been gone home when I saw him.
48. I can't stay long - I have to come back to the office.
49. We're waiting that the boss tells us what to do.
50. We couldn't hear each other speaking because the music was too much loud.
51. Anyone can go to the party as long as they pay to get in.
52. How about to go to Greece on holiday this year?
53. Ann: I wish you'd told me before. Bob: I've only found out an hour ago.
54. We don't have enough players to make up two teams.
55. I asked a pen to my sister.
56. Whose the turn is?
57. I'm trying to do this for weeks - can you help me?
58. When they asked, I said I didn't know what was the problem.
59. Who has won the match yesterday?
60. He can't have came in the morning because I was at home and I'd have heard the bell.